SDG 11.2 Support of Arts and Heritage

SDG 11 – Indicator 11.2.5 Arts and heritage contribution

Contribute to local arts, in terms of number of annual public performances of university choirs, theatre groups, etc.

Universitas Sriwijaya plays an essential role in promoting the arts and preserving cultural heritage as part of its commitment to Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 11: Sustainable Cities and Communities. Through regular public performances by its choirs, theater groups, and other artistic ensembles, the university enhances cultural vibrancy and fosters inclusive community participation in the arts.

Universitas Sriwijaya actively supports the development of arts and culture through various student communities and performance groups, particularly in music and theater. One of the prominent student activity units is Teater GABI '91, established on October 21, 1991, by students of the Indonesian Language and Literature Education Program. Teater GABI '91 has participated in numerous national arts events, such as the Pekan Seni Mahasiswa Nasional (PEKSIMINAS). In 2023, Teater GABI '91 frequently organized various events, including webinars, performances, and other activities. One notable event, GABI EXPO 6, organized by Teater GABI '91 at Universitas Sriwijaya, took place from November 1 to 3, 2023, under the theme “Panggung Masa Lalu Bumi Sriwijaya” (Stage of the Past Sriwijaya Land). This event featured theatrical competitions and workshops, bringing together six theater groups from high schools and independent communities across South Sumatra. Aimed at revitalizing and preserving the region’s cultural arts, particularly theater, the expo served as a platform for creative expression and skill development, inspiring creativity among youth.

Universitas Sriwijaya also has several other student activity units in the arts, such as Belisario Choir. In 2024, Belisario Choir achieved success once again at the 13th Bali International Choir Festival (BICF), held from July 23 to 27 in Bali. Additionally, UNSRI has UKM Harmoni, which serves as a platform for students to develop their talents and skills in drama, dance, music, and other visual arts.
