SDG 11 - Indicator 11.4.4 Affordable housing for employees

Universitas Sriwijaya (UNSRI) provides housing facilities for its lecturers and staff, offering a comfortable and supportive living environment that promotes both professional and personal well-being. These housing facilities are designed to create a sense of community among residents while fostering a balance between work and home life. Strategically located near the campus, UNSRI housing ensures easy access to the workplace, supporting productivity and convenience for employees. The housing facilities are equipped with essential amenities to meet the needs of the residents, including green spaces, recreational areas, and community spaces for gatherings. These facilities aim to enhance the quality of life for lecturers and staff, enabling them to focus on their professional responsibilities while enjoying a supportive living environment.
