It has been widely acknowledged that education is a basic building block of every society, regardless of origin, religion, and ethnicity. Article 26 of the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights states that “Everyone has the right to education”. However, Covid-19 outbreak from 2019 to 2021 still left remnant effects on some students. Universitas Sriwijaya was understanding that building local action was part of the public response and could help building resilience of students. Therefore, the university welcome all prospective students from all over Indonesia, including those having excellent academic achievement but they were economically constrained. To provide similar access to education, Universitas Sriwijaya provided tuition fee adjustment (UKT I to VIII), depending on economic capacity of the students.
